Officer Coffey Assassinated at Empire.

Saint White Searching the Woods for a Party of Strikers who Fired on Guards.

Was a NEPHEW of MR. JO COFFEY

The reign of lawlessness at Empire on Saturday culminated in the slaying of R. H. Coffey, of this city, who had been for nearly a year in charge of the force of guards stationed at Empire.

On Saturday morning as John H. Fields, one of the guards, was escorting a number of miners to their work about 6 o'clock they saw a party of twelve strikers on a hill across the railroad from the mines about half a mile away.

The strikers opened fire and the miners quickly got out of range of shot.

Fields turned his horse around and rode back to the mine, shouting to the miners to get out of the way.

The murdered man was a nephew of Mr. Jo Coffey, Cashier of the Columbia Bank.

Fields then ceased firing and disappeared over the hill. A squad of guards under Geo. Lander started in pursuit on foot. Coffey borrowed a horse from Dr. Gooch and started through a pile of woods toward them.

Lander called out to him that he had better not expose himself alone, but he did not stop. This was the last seen of him until he was found dead four hours later. He was nearly two miles from the mines when found, near the house of Bayless Parker. Soon after he left, the guard heard three shots in that direction.

As Coffey's gun was to his hand loaded, the probabilities are that the three shots were fired at him from ambush, as he rode through the woods.

His body was found lying on the right shoulder, the gun under his head. The horse was eating grass probably fifty yards away.

The fatal shot a "mushroom bullet" from a rifle. It entered the left leg above the knee, severed an artery and spreading out tore a piece of skin as large as a man's hand off the inside of his leg. As the horse was unshod, Mr. Coffey had probably dismounted when attacked. He was lying in a pool of blood, lifeless. He had died in death in a very few moments.

Coroner Alensworth went to Empire Saturday and held an inquest. G. W. Lander was the principal witness, who detailed the facts given above. He was corroborated by B. F. Grant.

Deputy Sheriff C. J. Barnes stated that J. W. Anderson was suspected of the murder, as his shoes were found at the tracks leading from the place, after Anderson's arrest.

The jury returned a verdict of murder from a gunshot at the hands of parties unknown.

Before the finding of the body, Wm. and Ed Goldworthy, J. W. Anderson, Geo. Phillips, Ellis Dickard and two tramps named Barton, were arrested.

Goldworthy resisted violently and attempted to shoot Deputy Barnes with a pistol snatched from John Fiebold's seaboard. He was overpowered and charmed. The men were all brought to this city Saturday afternoon and lodged in jail.

The body of the dead officer was brought to his home in this city, at 203 East 18th street, and funeral services were held at 2 o'clock by Rev. C. H. Nash, of the Baptist church. Afterwards the Masonic Lodge, of which the deceased had been a member, took charge of the body and buried it with Masonic honors in Hopewell Cemetery.

Mr. Coffey was 53 years old and a brave and efficient officer. He formerly lived in South Christian but later entered the service of the L. & N. Railroad as a special detective, which position he held until his health failed. He located at Guthrie and served a term as mayor of that town. Then he came to Hopkinsville and having regained his health a year ago was employed by the Empire Coal Co. to guard its property. He had been there ever since and when the Sheriff's posse was sent he became one of the 30 deputies sworn in. He was the recognized leader and as such the strikers feared and hated him. He stated to friends here two weeks ago that he was "marked" for slaughter by the lawless element, but he never stated a moment later. He was absolutely fearless and the very man to deal with a lawless element. His intrepid courage made him reckless at times and this cost him his life.

He leaves a family of five children and the bereaved widow. He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Boyd and the second Miss Chailey, of Virginia. He has three grown sons and two smaller children. Two of the sons are in the railroad business and was present at the funeral.

The trials of five of the men arrested were called yesterday and adjourned until Thursday. Two tramps named Barton were released.

The officers believe they have the right man or at least a part of them. There is much indignation felt at the assassination and while there is no immediate danger it would not take much trouble to arouse a mob spirit—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

The murdered man was a nephew of Mr. Jo Coffey, Cashier of the Columbia Bank.

Fights his Way to Liberty.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 28.—A desperado man, George Parker, alias "Butch" Cassidy, cowboy, murderer and train robber, wanted for complicity in the great Northern $81,000 express robbery at Waggon, Mont., escaped from the very clutches of the law this morning, and the chase after the fleeing desperado makes up one of the most exciting days in the history of the Nashville police department.

News of the thrilling dash of the bandit spread through the city in a very few minutes, and it was not long until many citizens, armed with pistols and shotguns, joined Police Corps and Sheriff Hurt and their men in an effort to apprehend the man, but as the case stands he outwitted them all.

He went to the Newman & Co., dry goods store, and after making small purchases presented a $50 bill in payment. It was found that the bill was one of those stolen from the express train. A telephone message was sent to the police and the bandit was detained. Detective Dwyer and Dickens responded. Detective Dwyer asked the man his name, to which he responded, giving the name of Ferguson. "We are officers and you are under arrest," said Dwyer, at the same time placing his hand on the man's shoulder. Quick as a flash, without uttering a word, and before the officers could pull out their pistols, the prisoner with both hands threw back his coat and jerked from their holsters a brace of forty-five-caliber pistols, holding them in either hand, commanding the officers to permit him to pass them. Dwyer had his pistol, while the other officer had his pocket "hilly" filled with shot. They grabbed the prisoner from each side and a desperate hand-to-hand encounter followed, in which neither of the three men had a chance to use a pistol. Dickens brought his billy to play upon the head of the bandit, but he fought on like a demon. For three minutes the three men struggled in a small space near the front of the store only a few feet from the door. In some unaccountable manner the desperado, a man of Herculean strength, threw the officers from him and made a dash into College street.

Before the officers could recover themselves the man ran down the street, where a large ice wagon was passing. On the wagon were three negroes. The bandit threw one pistol in the holster he was wearing,atching one of the horses by the bridle. He commanded the negroes to leave the wagon, stating that he needed the team. Two were on the pavement in a jiffy, but one refused to give up, and did not leave the driver's box until after his life had been threatened. The desperado, grabbing the reins and a big whip, jumped to the driver's seat, whipped up the horses and was off in a minute, the team going up the grade fire-engine fashion. As the bandit drove up College street Detective Dwyer reopened fire on the fugitive and missed.

The desperado proceeded on his way to the Cumberland riverbridge, applying the lash to the steeds at their every jump. The wagon swayed to and fro as it went over the bridge, narrowly escaping a collision with other vehicles. In the flying ride the desperado lost his hat.

With coolness and deliberation the bandit decided upon his next move. He was certain he was being pursued by two and perhaps a dozen officers and citizens. Down Bridge avenue, at the corner of First street, he noticed a buggy and a good-looking buggy attached. His brain acted quickly. The ice wagon team was slow, hitched to a cumbersome wagon. The ice wagon team could not stand the race against more fleet-footed animals, and the driver decided to abandon the vehicle. He threw the horses, killing one, and leapfrogging from the wagon marked with four bullet holes, leaving a trace of blood behind on the seat. He told a negro who was standing near by to take charge of the team. Again he showed rare presence of mind. Running across the street, he held up an old negro who was driving the buggy, whose belongings belonged to Maj. M. J. Dodson. After securing the Dodson he led the bandit's drive on a frightful rate. Across the rough fields he went to a saw mill near the river, passing across several gullies, where telephone poles are trimmed for use. There were several hundred of these poles. The bandit did not falter for an instant when he found himself hemmed in, but whipped up the faithful team and sent him in a mad dash over the timber, buggy and all. Some of the poles were a foot or two apart, but he did not mind this, his only thought being to bush the horses along in the sensational drive for liberty. Leaving the pole yard, he came to a fence. He hesitated a moment and then tore down a section, driving through without stopping for an instant. The buggy turned over, but the hestitant instant it was set aright, the horse was whipped up again and was sent across the country at a gallop, stopping now for wire fences or other obstructions. The horse was tiring and to stay with him would mean arrest. Abandonment gave hope. So jumping from the buggy, which had remained intact during the long, hair-raising drive, he started through a section of Shely Park on foot.

The bandit noticed a home stood near the river. He cut the hitch strap mounted the horse bareback and again started off in a gallop. The ride for the next few hundred yards was as sensational as the trip across the telephone poles. This time the animal was driven to jump through wire fences and over gullies and ravines deep anywhere from ten to fifteen feet deep. At last he was stalled in a triangular wire fence with a thirty-foot-gully a few feet ahead. The animal was then abandoned by the fugitive.

The man was being closely pursued by Detective Dwyer and Patrolman W. H. Oger, and several shots were fired by the officers and the bandit. When last seen the man was going east. Penitentiary bloodhounds were put on the trail, but the path had been traversed by officers and they could not track him.

Capt. Henry Curran, all available policemen and Sheriff Hurt and his men, along with several Constables, were all in the chase in this case.

When he abandoned the buggy, fearing he should be apprehended perhaps he threw a wallet bulging with greenbacks in the air. Capt. Curran now has the money, $1,200 in $10 and $20 bills of the Bank of Montana, in his possession. They answer the description of the stolen money in every detail. When last seen the man was bleeding at the head, perhaps from a pistol wound, but more probably from the effect of the clubbing he received from Detective Dickens at the Newmarket.

Gov. Beckham will reply to farmer Durbin's letter in a few days.

Gov. Durbin, of Indiana, is a bigger man than the Constitution of the United States.

In a fight with Boers near Bethel the British lost several officers and fifty-four men killed and 100 wounded. Two British guns were also captured.

A college for the higher education of women will probably be founded in this State by the Kentucky Presbyterians. It is reported that the seminary will have an endowment fund of $500,000.

If the Kentucky authorities will agree for old Durbin to select a jury, employ the attorneys on both sides, and name the trial Judge, he will send Taylor and Finley to Kentucky.

The monthly statement of the public debt at the close of business on October 31 shows that the debt less cash in the Treasury amounted to $1,022,082,957, a decrease from last month of $9,563,408.

Mr. Jerome Grider, who was the Democratic candidate to represent Clinton and Wayne in the next Legislature, was accidentally shot at Cumberland City last Saturday. He was not dangerously hurt.

It was conceded on the eve of the election in Greater New York that Brooklyn held the key to the situation, and it would not be surprising if Low and the Fusionists are successful against Shepard and Tammany Hall.

While on his way to the Teutonsse penitentiary Harry Ryan, who had been sentenced with two other men to two years in prison for robbing a postoffice, confessed that he had been implicated in the robbery of the Manchester, Tenn., bank a few weeks before.

Edward S. Stokes, who shot and killed Jim Fisk, over Josie Mansfield, died in New York Saturday. Stokes at one time was the most prominent man on Wall street, and Fisk was a wealthy railroad man. The killing at the time was the talk of the whole country.

Eight children have died and eleven others are suffering from lockjaw as the result of the use of diphtheria antoxin in St. Louis. Investigations are being made, and so far confirm the belief that the serum contained tetanus toxin. Great alarm is felt by parents whose children have been inoculated.

The jury in the case of the Commonwealth against George Halloway, charged with murdering officer Richter, in Louisville, last April, failed to agree. It is said that eleven of the jurors were for hanging and one for acquittal. If newspapers gave correct accounts it was one of the foulest murders ever perpetrated in Louisville.

A writer in Washington says no matter how Hanna, Platt, Quay and others may appear to the public view, these men are bent on Roosevelt's retirement when his term ends. His erraticisms are looked upon as dangerous, and there is no telling at what hour he may provoke an explosion. This winter, when Congress is fairly underway, the campaign of 1904 will begin. The Republican machine leaders will raise the money necessary to defeat Roosevelt should he bend the power of his office for the nomination.

The Election

Don't bother us in the least, we're "down to business" in our store, if you don't think so come in and take a look.

We have just returned from the markets and have loaded our store with the biggest stock you ever saw in Columbia.

We didn't buy quite all the goods we saw, or were we the only buyers paying cash for our goods, but we've "done a plenty" and if you will just step in, take a birds eye view of our store you will think "we're the only Pebbles on the Beach."

Dress Goods Dep't.

We show all the latest Autumn styles together with an endless variety of trimmings—too numerous to mention here. Our shirt waist stock is a wonder.

Cloaks.

On this trip we bought a beautiful line of Ladies and Misses Cloaks, Capes, Automobiles—long, medium and short—desirable colors, and qualities, at closing out prices. In this line we can down all competition.

Shoes.

Everybody knows we do the shoe business of Columbia. We've built up, and maintain our immense trade in this department by our scrupulous regard for values. It is an expression we hear every day "I got the best shoes from you," our years of experience has taught us what the people want. We buy shoes from the best Manufacturers in the country, and you can always depend on getting the latest Leather and styles from us. We've no room in this stock for "Auction Stuff."

Clothing.

What is the sense in paying $18. to $25 for a so called "Tailor Made" suit when we can fit you just as well give you just as good value from $7.50 to $14.00 per suit? Over Coats from $5.00 to $15.00 qualities and cuts can't be excelled. You want to look at this stock before you place your order, can fit any body from 8 years of age up. Our line of Men's custom-made Odd Pants are late in fabric and cut.

Groceries, Hardware,

Tinware, Queenware &c. &c. Come to see us. We are anxious to show you our new stock.

RUSSELL & MURRELL

THE RESULT.

A Large Vote Poll'd in Adair County,

And the Republicans Make a Clean Sweep and are Very Jubilant.

DUE TO A STRONG ORGANIZATION.

The Republicans of Adair county entered the fight yesterday morning with a determination such as they had never before exhibited in a county contest.

The colored element of the party was on the square by the time the polls were opened and their ballots were rapidly cast until they had voted out. But few darkies, if any, failed to vote and every white Republican in the two Columbia precincts took an active part in polling the full strength of the party.

By ten o'clock the Democratic candidates were convinced that the day was lost to them, and the party workers became negligent, and from that time on but little interest was manifested.

This overwhelming defeat is not a surprise to many Democrats of the country. For weeks it has been conceded that the Republicans had a strong organization and were working day and night to get out every vote in the county.

Upon the other hand the Democrats appeared to be dilatory, and the party workers exhibited no signs of enthusiasm. It was known that they were up against a majority of three hundred or more, and to overcome that was problem too difficult to fathom.

Every Republican candidate in the county, who had opposition has been elected, the majorities ranging from 250 to 930.

James Garrett, Jr., the Democratic candidate for County Attorney, had no opposition. He received the full strength of his party, and perhaps as many as one hundred Republicans, who are his personal friends, complimented him with their votes.

R. T. McCaffree, the Democratic candidate for Surveyor, was elected without opposition.

While the Democrats of Adair county have been badly snowed under, they are not dismayed and in the future will prove their ability to cope with the strong opposition. It is not our intention in this article, to explain the defeat, but to acknowledge it, neither do we mean to abuse our Republican friends for scoring their greatest victory in this county. They are entitled to all the offices for which they contended; entitled to all the glory and satisfaction that should accompany victory. The offices belong to them and the likewise the responsibility.

We are built to stand most anything even an overwhelming Republican victory and while we find no pleasure in breaking the news of our defeat still it our mission and below we give the vote of this county.

The following gentleman were elected magistrates: In Cane Valley, Wm. Biggs, Milltown and Keltner, Anna Kemp, Gradyville and Elroy, William, England, Harmony and Glenville, A. C. Loy, Little Cake and White Oak, J. M. Williams, Pellyton and Casey Creek, J. M. Woiford, Columbia, John Eubank, Mr. Jake Fees was elected conceivable in the Columbia precinct by a majority of 10.

The candidates for the State Senate ran with their respective tickets.

The Republican candidate for Legislature had no opposition.

Russell county gone Republican and elected its entire ticket.

Taylor county Democratic by 275 to 800.

Green county Democrats scored a victory and won their entire ticket. Mr. Wade Democratic candidate for Representative from Green and Taylor was elected by a good majority.

Metcalfe county is reported close and at this hour the result is unknown.

No Democratic consultation exists in Casey county and Cumberland. Old Cumberland, has not yet reported, but it is probable that she too has gone Republican.

The State of Ohio rolled up a 60,000 Republican majority and New York City elected Seth Low, Republican, Mayor by 80,000.

Mr. Grainger, Democratic candidate for Mayor was elected in Louisville, and the Legislature of this State has a good safe Democratic majority.

AT REST.

Thos. Cravens, After a Long Illness, Passes Over the River of Death.

THE END CAME AT 8:30 SATURDAY

Last Saturday afternoon the subject of this writing became rapidly worse and at the hour above mentioned his soul went to God who gave it. The end was peaceful. The untold suffering of this poor soul, who had suffered so much for several weeks, seemed to have been removed, and calmly, without a struggle, he passed into the world beyond.

He died at the home of his brother, Mr. M. Cravens, in this city, and no particular details of his life were known.

Mr. Henry E. Christie, Camp Knox, died on Saturday morning.

He reported that he had eaten large steers, a few days ago, to J. C. Duncan & Bro., for 4 cents per pound. They averaged 1200 pounds.

Ed. F. C. Shearer, who was stricken with consumption, died yesterday.

Mr. Anderson Holliday, left here yesterday for Edison, Ga., with a load of carpets. The carpets were perfect.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. L. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to cramp, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croaky symptom appears we have found that the dreaded cramp is cured before it gets setted." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by M. Cravens.

The striking miners, who are confined in jail at Hopkinsville on the charge of killing B. H. Coffey, an Empire mine guard, will be given their examining trial Thursday. The Empire mines have resumed operations with a reduced force.

To remove a troublesome corn or blister: First soak the corn or blister in warm toofen; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes tincture application. A corn paver should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general remit for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by M. Cravens.

The Chicago female who proposed to raise a fund for the erection of a mausoleum to C. S. Cozey has abandoned that plan and now suggests that a cheap boarding house be built in his memory. The suggestion is not so bad. One could wish Crozey few worse mortals than a cheap boarding house.

Quoting some recent observations of the Courier-Journal, the Duluth Tribune says: "It is plain that we have here Mr. Patterson's modern and highly elegant form of the ancient and irascible argument: 'Do you want your daughter to marry a wogey?'

Well, do you?

Is not the President one of the with whom when he speaks, or acts, it is said that "everything goes?"

The point of interest is not so much how that woman went over Niagara Falls as how it was discovered that she was fifty years old.—From The Courier-Journal.

Republican Fraud.

Washington, Oct. 22.—An employee of the United States Census Bureau has prepared an interesting table, based on the official census returns and the official vote at the November election, 1900, comparing the Eleventh and First congressional districts in the State of Kentucky.

This table shows in the nineteen counties of the Eleventh district a total vote of 50,558 was cast for the Republican, Democrat and scattering candidates for the presidency. The Census Bureau gives the number of males twenty-one years of age and over in the nineteen counties as 50,070. Of the other words, the nineteen counties of the Eleventh district poll 90 per cent. of their highest possible vote.

In the thirteen counties of the First district a total vote of 4,729 was cast for the Democratic, Republicans and scattering candidates for the presidency. The Census Bureau gives the number of males twenty-one years of age and over in the thirteen counties as 51,167. Or, in other words, the First district poll 83 per cent. of its highest possible vote.

In one county of the Eleventh district, the county of Leslie, a great vote was polled than the Census Bureau gives voters.

In both districts the Census Supervisors were Republicans.

A Great Medicine.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Croup and Darrhea Remedy and find it to be a great remedy," says Mr. S. Phillips of Potomac, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quiet cure which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by M. Cravens.

The Pan-American Congress continues to have its troubles, though it has not yet got down to real business.

Now the secessaries are in a Huff because they were invited to leave the hall while the delegates had a secret conference.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in Chicago.

Eligen Broas, the popular South side druggist, corner 6th street and West Washington, says: "We sell a great deal of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and find that it gives the most satisfactory results, especially among children for severe colds and cough." For sale by M. Cravens.

Farmers seem to be very busy sowing wheat and taking care of their crops.

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Oberholser of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain nor sit in a chair propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electro Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50¢ at T. E. Paul's Drug Store and W. H. Wilkinson, of Liberty.
